EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Sandcastle, Purse, Branch

Amazing Wedding Cakes begins in Los Angeles where a last-moment Sandcastle engagement cake for 100 people pushes the Cake Divas to the edge. Meanwhile, in Chicago, the Cake Girls put all hands on cakes as the deadline for five of their unique purse cakes comes a lot sooner than they thought. And in New York the Cake Atelier struggles with the concept that less is more, until they start the delivery of the cake. Then, more is just a lot more!

2. Platinum Princess, Guitar, Orchid

Get the cake to the reception on time, and in one piece, is the challenge of this week's episode. The Cake Divas wrestle with an elegant cake that to go the hills of Los Angeles. While in Chicago, the Cake Girls challenge is twofold – how to make a guitar cake stand up and survive the delivery? While in the big apple the Cake Atelier has spent days creating fragile and chic orchids but will the taxi cab delivery dash all their efforts?

3. Convertible, Birch, Sweet Pea

Only in LA could someone order a wedding cake in the shape of a convertible car, but the Cake Divas are up to the challenge. In Chicago, the Cake Girls encounter a first: a groom who wants to order the wedding cake. He's confident, but is he right to be? Business is booming in New York and the Cake Atelier has taken on interns to help with the heavy load. But will the extra hands help or hinder?

4. Skull, Butterfly, Green

At the Cake Atelier in NYC things are moving slightly away from the traditional with a skull wedding cake. Meanwhile, there's a discussion over how many butterflies should grace the design of an elegant creation by Chicago's Cake Girls. Once again it's a tug of war between aesthetic and money. And in Los Angeles, the Cake Divas have to come up with a design for actor, Ed Begley, Jr.

5. Elegant Monkeys, Sports Theme, Individual

Elegant is not a word you might particularly associate with monkeys, but that is the challenge placed in front of the Cake Divas' Marc. Chicago is a sports town and it's no surprise that the man who proposed to his fiancé in Wrigley field would want a cake to reflect the event. And in New York the expanded staff of the Cake Atelier is met with a new challenge--150 individual wedding cakes.

6. Laurel, Ring Box, Sugar Balls

The trial this week for the Cake Divas: can they make a pink wedding cake manly enough for the groom? Meanwhile, in Chicago, when Brenda of the Cake Girls took the order it seemed so simple: an engagement cake with four ring boxes stacked upon one another. But inevitably, this straightforward task becomes an arduous building feat. At the Cake Atelier the battle between perfection and practicality rages on between Lauri and Ruth.
