

Platinum Weddings (Series 4)

20 X 30 MINUTES

EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Summer and Matt

South Western vistas and traditional Spanish details combine for a fun and festive celebration.

2. Alexis and Noah

Ecological awareness goes Platinum when a DC couple incorporates green elements into their high-end nuptials.

3. Adriana and David

A chorus line welcomes the newlyweds before they break into a fiery tango, making their beachside reception sizzle.

4. Amy and Vince

Miss Asia America meets the man of her dreams, and their San Francisco wedding is a glimmering fuchsia fantasy worthy of her crown.

5. Maya and Pav

Three days of colourful celebration culminate in an elegant affair at a California beach hotel.

6. Jaimie and Gregg

A stunning American castle is the backdrop for fairy-tale nuptials with an enchanted garden theme, a gown encrusted with thousands of crystals, and a real Prince Charming.

7. Maria and Tom

A unique, Celtic theme – complete with thrones for the newlyweds – highlights this wedding on the Annapolis waterfront.

8. Natasha and Raffie

The jewels, the food, the Ricardo Luna designs, the couple themselves: they're all stunners at this southern California extravaganza.

9. Kim and Ken

A sweet, loving couple throws a dream wedding on a lush island, complete with Hula performers and $75,000 worth of orchids.

10. Varuni and Minesh

Time-honoured rituals, stunning saris and a treasure trove of gold make this Indian wedding a delight for 1,100 guests.

11. Mollie and Jason

Six glorious gowns and an abundance of Southern charm make for an unforgettable and glamorous wedding.

12. Daneris and Hector

Long-time lovebirds tie the knot surrounded by countless crystals and unique, autumnal florals.

13. Liana and Tal

Nothing is too extravagant for these Los Angeles movers and shakers, not even the groom's gift to the bride of a luxury, pearlescent SUV with matching pearl necklace and earrings.

14. Candes and Milan

An idyllic Hawaiian island provides the perfect setting for a romantic tropical wedding between a former Miss Hawaii and a European chef. Nature and elegance combine at the cliff-side ceremony with décor and flowers in blush pink, light green and gold. Hundreds of crystal strands rain down to make the reception tent shimmer.

15. Maria and Chris

Maria and Chris celebrate their nuptials with multiple events at the highly secluded and private South Seas Island resort off the coast of Florida. Pre-ceremony events include a golf tournament for their guests, afternoon spa treatments, and an exotic Caribbean themed welcome party. Orchid chandeliers, glittering carved ice elements, and a Miami club themed after party captivate their guests.

16. Christine and Jonathan

Christine's father decided to build the perfect venue for her wedding to Jonathan. And he's gone all-out by creating an entire $4m event space, including a high-tech chapel and reception ballroom, a perfect courtyard for cocktail hour, deluxe suites for the bridal party, and even a custom spiral staircase and balcony for the bouquet toss.

17. Anisha and Kennard

When the daughter of baseball player Tony Gwynn marries a young ball player, the celebration is bound to be a home run! The bride proudly ties all aspects of her wedding to the family's love of the game. In a nod to the baseball diamond, she exclusively wears diamond jewellery, in fact, $1.35m worth.

18. Naomi and George

The guests of a Black Eyed Peas guitarist and a Hollywood hairstylist are in for an adventure of a lifetime when the couple whisks them away to Mexico. They have several events planned, from a rocking welcome party to swimming with sharks. It's followed by an incredible reception in a cave that's vibrantly decked out in reds and purples.

19. Natalie and Bob

Sacramento's Tsakopoulos library looks breath-taking, decked out in Natalie and Bob's wedding décor. Table-scapes of silver-edged place settings and centrepieces created from 20 types of red flowers complete the effect. The bride makes a foray into an exclusive jewellery store that results in $1m of wedding day glam.

20. Cristina and Jorge

Two elements characterize the wedding of Cristina and Jorge: their Cuban heritage and perfectly executed pops of colour. It's important to the couple that the food is incredible, and since they're in South Beach, their chef incorporates Cuban spices and fruits into a steak and lobster dinner to create a modern Floribbean feast.
