EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. A Daughter's Promise

Carol's daughter Holly desperately wants to find her mother's firstborn and only son Warren. In 1980, a week before Warren's second birthday, his father came to pick him up for visitation; Carol never saw her son again. Carol wants nothing more than to be reunited with her son and tell him that not a day goes by that she doesn't think about him.

2. The Dad Who Didn't Know...

Patti met Dean in August of 1982 while stationed at an air force base. Patti was 21 and Dean was 19. They shared two weeks together before Dean returned home to Texas. Patti and Dean knew that they would miss each other but agreed that they had to say good-bye. Two months later, Patti discovered she was pregnant.

3. A Father's Amends

Time is running out for Nicole's father, Michael, who discovered six months ago that he has lung cancer. After this devastating news, the only thing on Nicole's mind is to help him find his firstborn son and her half-brother, Michael Jr.

4. A Daughter's Mission

Alexia has not seen her dad since she was five years old. After her mother remarried, she lost all contact with him. Alexia has a few memories of her father when she was growing up: she can hear his distinctively gruff New York accent, but she can't put a face to it. She longs to know why he's made no effort to contact her.

5. A Brother Reaches Out

Scott was raised in a typical middle-class Texas family where his father worked and his mother stayed home to raise him and his brother. But nine months ago, he received a phone call from his mother that would change his life forever.

6. A Dying Wish

Warren Withrow has been living with the guilt of not making good on the dying wish of his best friend, Tracy. In the early 90s, Tracy was diagnosed with HIV and wanted to find a loving home for her daughter, Sarah, before she grew too ill to take care of her.

7. A Daughter's Dream

In 1985, Wendy and Christopher Radcliff's mother, Jennifer, left them to be raised by their paternal grandparents when they were 9 and 10 years old. The brother and sister have called on Troy to locate Jennifer, who originally escaped from an abusive relationship with their father.

8. The Truth About Dad

Jeremy Burgess grew up an only child in a household where the matriarch of his family was his grandmother. Since then, Jeremy has been searching for his father and longing to hear his side of the story and avoid wasting any more valuable time without a dad.

9. A Son's Search

Amy and Chris are newlyweds and Amy contacted Troy to help her husband find his biological father. Chris's mother committed suicide when he was 3, and he was adopted and raised by a maternal cousin and her husband. Chris's grandparents shared as much information about his dad with Chris as they could, but they didn't know much.

10. A Sister's Heartbreak

Vyanna's family was torn apart years ago due to her parents' abuse and neglect, but she refuses to let the wounds from the past stop her from finding the brother she hasn't seen in 18 years. Addison was taken away from the family at the age of four. Vyanna has enlisted Troy to help her find him and recreate the relationship she lost.

11. A Mother's Peace of Mind

Cindy Ruff knows what it's like to be on both sides of adoption. As a child, she was given up by her young mother. At 18, she became pregnant and made the tough choice to give up her son. Cindy felt that she wanted to give him the same gift of a two parent home as she had found.

12. A Daughter's Struggle

Kathy lost her father in a fire when she was just 11. Her mother put Kathy and her brother up for adoption, but always regretted it. Now, June and Kathy have both contacted Troy, and are hoping for the impossible dream to become real.

13. A Mother's Healing

25 years ago, Mary and her husband Clement went through a dark period after they were told that Mary was unable to have children. Mary jumped at the chance to take in a neglected two year old girl, Tamisha, as an emergency foster-care placement. What began as a temporary placement became an unbreakable bond.

14. A Mother's Regrets

Shelly remembers missing her mother, Ann, since she was 8. After her parents' bitter divorce, Shelly's mother Ann left her life and as far as she knows, has never looked back. Shelly, now 41, is married and has two children of her own who she could never imagine not having in her life.

15. A Daughter's Two Dads

David wants nothing more than to help his stepdaughter Christa find her biological father, Dean. For over 20 years, since Christa discovered at the age of 13 that she had a different father, she has wanted to locate him. She is not even sure if he knows she exists.

16. A Daughter's Last Hope

Two father/daughter stories with two very different outcomes. We follow Robert, a father trying to reconnect with the daughter he hasn't seen in 15 years. When Robert's relationship with Rebekah's mother fell apart, her mother severed ties due to Robert's addiction to alcohol and drugs. Robert, today clean and sober, wants nothing more than to see his daughter again.

17. A Niece's Gift

Stephanie wants to help her Aunt Donna find the daughter she gave up more than 40 years ago. Donna grew up with a loving mother and a very old-school father who was furious when he found out that at the age of 20, she was carrying a biracial baby.

18. A Son's Search for Answers

Paul Spicer has had a fulfilling life, living his dream as a defensive end for the New Orleans Saints. Even with all of his success, he still feels a void from not knowing his father. Paul has had his own struggles with fatherhood and feels his father's absence impacted that.
