1. Melissa & Jerry, Lisa & Ross

For New Yorkers Melissa and Jerry, Gino secures a picturesque wedding location under the Brooklyn Bridge. Ross is a bachelor and Lisa's a fourth time bride, but their rooftop wedding is a perfect fit.

2. Cassandra & Joko; Katie & Tim

Cassandra and Joko want to marry at the Top of the Rock, but their guest list is too large and Gino needs to find an alternative. Katie and Tim want a church wedding, but Gino convinces them that Times Square would be more their style.

3. Sade & Aaron; Kira & Damien

Sade and Aaron are too busy to plan their own wedding, while Kira and Damien have all the time in the world. But Gino wows Sade with an elegant rooftop wedding, while giving Kira and Damien the beach ceremony they dreamed of.

4. Abigail & David; Meritza & Kyle

Gino marries stylish couple Meritza & Kyle on a runway during a fashion show. Abigail & David have never been to NYC, but dream about being married there, and Gino scores them a location in the iconic Grand Central Station.

5. Alison & Skip; Linda & Curtis

In Washington Square Park, Gino marries a bride who was married to a woman to a man. An Asian-American bride defies her parents and marries her African-American husband in an iconic chequered taxi.

Two weddings showcase Central Park and the site of the 1964 World's Fair. But there's plenty of drama, including a hungover groom, a bus breakdown, missing bridesmaids, and an ominous approaching storm.
