

Charly's Cake Angels (Series 2)

13 X 30 MINUTES

EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Heaven Scored Big Time

It's been 6 months since Jacqui, Alex, Dani and Roche had cameras swarming around them and a lot has happened! In January, Charly was diagnosed with cancer and sadly passed away in May – but in the words of the Angels: 'Heaven scored big time!' There have been queues out the door every day since Season One aired, and the Angels are struggling to cope...

2. Roch and Charles' Big Adventure

Love is in the air as Roche prepares to walk down the aisle to say 'I do' to Charles, but there's no such thing as a stress-free wedding! With only six weeks to go, the cake angels need some serious miracles to pull it off, and with Charles being an officer in the British Military, he's not there to help Roche plan all the details...

3. It's Going to be Spooktacular

What do a Ricoffy Tin, PlayStation and an Anaconda have in common? Well, at Charly's Bakery these are just some of the bizarre cake orders the creative foursome get to make every week! The weirder and wackier the cake, the happier the angels, because even though the requests might be bizarre, every single cake is still a work of art, lovingly put together with a touch of Charly's magic!

4. Holy Cake

Alex and Jacqui just get back from Israel when they get a call from Snowflake with an order for a monstrous four-tier cake for Taste of Cape Town's six-year anniversary! Taste of Cape Town is one of the Mother City's most prestigious annual foodie events and the angels are ecstatic to be part of it for a second year running.

5. The Most Amazing Surprise

Every year, the Angels treat their hard-working staff to an exciting day out in Cape Town to thank them for all their incredible work. And this year is no exception! It's bigger, better and even more thrilling! Their adventure starts on with a boat trip and, for a lot of the staff, it's their first time ever out at sea.

6. We Love Birthdays

At Charly's Bakery all the Angels love their birthdays. It's the time where they get to design a cake for charities close to their hearts and spend their special day with them to create a bit of magic. Both Jenny and Yen are off sick and that means that a (slightly grumpy) Roche has to use her time off to help out.

7. The Best Feeling in the World

It's Christmas at Charly's Bakery and it seems that all the tourists have arrived in the Mother City at the same time. This means that along with their regular cake orders, the Angels have to conjure up hundreds of Christmas themed cupcakes, cookies and petit fours to keep up with their customers' insatiable demands! No easy task!

8. Oompa Loompa Love

It's that time of the year again which the angels love to hate: Valentine's Day! Usually, the angels have a week before Valentine's Day to prepare for the mayhem ahead, but this year Valentines arrives early with queues of customers out the door before the dreaded day has even arrived!

9. We Love Birthdays II

It's birthday time again, and as is birthday tradition, Roch, Dani and Frances each get to choose a cause close to their hearts where they get to celebrate their special day. This year, Dani has a special message for kids about ocean conservation and decides to design a three-tier sea creature cake, but with the usual mayhem at the bakery, it looks like her cake might not be done in time.

10. 7 Weddings and a Flashmob

Wedding season is upon the Angels and this means they have to be meticulous about each and every order. There's been a shift in what customers want and it's no longer just beautiful three tiered cakes decorated with fresh flowers. Cakes have become personalised and by the end of the week the angels have to create eight wedding cakes!

11. Thinking Outside the Cakebox

Luckily for the Angels, it's Cape Town's annual Design Indaba week, and the girls get some inspiration and make some desperately needed designer friends! The Angels are designing trailers! There's a mountain of work to be done and it looks like they've finally bitten off more than they can chew.

12. Old Mac Daddy Gets Baked

The initial excitement about designing the interiors of two of Old Mac Daddy's Airstream trailers has turned to dread – the angels are running out of time. With all the crises and all the crazy to deal with, Dani and Roch have to deal with all the orders at the bakery while Alex and Jacqui devote most of their time and effort to the trailers.

13. We've Come All the Way From...

After season one hit TV screens, Charly's Bakery has had an influx of fans not only from South Africa, but from all over the world, and when they're not flying around the bakery, the Angels work endlessly to help different charities and people in need. The angels talk about the year that's gone, and take a look back.
