

Collar Of Duty (Series 2)

12 x 30'

EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Greg & the Parrots, Noah & Riley

A US War Vet diagnosed with PTSD, finds solace in rescue parrots, Bella and Chico. Riley, an English Spaniel diabetic alert dog, detects Noah's life threatening drops in blood sugar levels.

2. Jackson & Belle, Bernard & Edison

Belle, a Black Labrador trained by inmates in the California prison system helps a bright young boy with autism gain independence and engage in social activities. A photographer and blogger with PTSD and anxiety is helped by a deaf American Bulldog named.

3. Mahogany & Hope, Jessica & Honey

A Golden Doodle named Hope helps an ex-military mom cope with her PTSD, and other serious physical ailments so that she can be the mother she wants to be again. A Miniature Service Horse named Honey helps a woman with Chrohn's disease with balance and mobility.

4. Cynthia & Miu, West & Ricochet

In Berkeley, California, a college student fights depression with the help of a rescue pigeon named Miu. An inspirational surfing dog named Ricochet, helps a preteen with Autism gain confidence and develop socially.

5. Marcel & Teigan, Sarah & Luna & Bono

Teigan, a psychiatric service dog, helps a retired paramedic suffering from PTSD become the family man he used to be. A Great Pyrenees mix named Luna and an Irish Sport horse named Bono help a young woman cope with her anxiety and bipolar disorder.

6. Daniel & Leo, Julia & Stanley

After losing his vision from a hereditary condition, Daniel rebuilds a new life for himself with the help of his Guide Dog, Leo. A young woman with physical and mental health issues is looked after by her service dog, Stanley who is named after her childhood teddy bear.

7. Bonny & Carson, Julian & Maggie

A yellow Labrador named Carson helps a young woman diagnosed with PTSD and depression find peace after severe bullying throughout high school. A boy with Asperger's finds companionship and develops his social skills with the help of a pot-bellied pig named Maggie.

8. Cathy & Cinder & Holly, Reece & Frodo

A deeply grieving widow finds her confidence and independence after working with horses Cinder and Holly. A Standard Poodle named Frodo responds to a boy's epileptic seizures, so that he can feel safe in any situation.

9. Shelby & Big Mac, Ralph & Atlas

A young woman with cerebral palsy gains the confidence to leave home and make it on her own thanks to a Golden Retriever named Big Mac. A Labrador named Atlas provides assistance to a man with Parkinson's Disease, allowing him to experience activities he would not be able to otherwise.

10. Paighton & Portia, Travis & Siggy

After sustaining a life-altering head injury, a young girl is given a second chance at a normal childhood thanks to her mobility assistance dog, Portia. In Lodi California, A capuchin service monkey named Siggy inspires newfound purpose in the life of Travis, a C5-C6 quadriplegic.

11. Dryver & Kallie, Stephanie & Flare

A Border Collie/Husky mix named Kallie aids a teenage boy struggling with deep depression and is the muse for his career aspirations. A Golden Retriever named Flare distracts a teenage girl from her chronic pain so she can focus on enjoying life.

12. Adam & Gus, Sarah & Picasso

A motor accident left Adam paralyzed and he didn't realize there was a void in his life until he got Gus, a Chocolate Lab who unintentionally became his service dog. A young woman with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome forms fundamental socialization skills through a therapeutic horse-riding program.