EPISODIC BREAKDOWN

1. Feature Length

The Carpathian Mountains, the Danube River and the Black Sea, gave birth to the wildest country in Europe. The richness of this place lies in spectacular mountains, in rivers full of life, in healthy forests. Following the four seasons of the year, we will discover the life of the most emblematic animals of Romania and we will unfold the story of the most amazing natural landscapes. The end of the year will bring a time when the hunters are thriving. From the amazing biodiversity of the primeval forests, to the red deer rut in the mountains, or the unique mud volcanoes, autumn and winter form a season of change. We will travel to some of the most remote areas of Romania, from pristine beech forests in hidden valleys to the land of the largest predators and from the first Romanian national park to the snowy peaks of the Carpathians, to unveil the best kept secrets of Europe's wilderness.
